

11th grade students started The week of poetry. They dedicated their literature classes to spring, rhymes and love. In the school library, they read poems of their choice and listened to excerpts from Live Poets.

For primary school children, for independent reading, the library offered a wide selection of children's poems by Elin Pelin, Dora Gabe, Elisaveta Bagryana, Kalina Malina, Viktor Samuilov, Rumén Ivanchev, Uncle Niki, Petya Kokudeva, Borko Barborko

This week was dedicated to spring, to faith, to childhood, to love and to that great and eternal human Happiness. Poetry Week ended on the wonderful spring holiday - Annunciation. VIth A students read favorite poems
